MONTHLY NEWS-SHEET FOR CORTON HOUSE AND BRAKENDON CLOSE

FROM THE MANAGER

What a swelter! The last week in July was very hot with temperatures above average.

The Hog Roast on the 3rd July was very popular and we are exploring ideas for next year.

Our next big event will be the annual Summer Fete on the 17th August from 2pm. Everything is going to plan and we hope that the weather will be favourable on the day. If anyone has any bric-a-brac, can bake a good cake, has new clothes items that have never been worn etc, please start to send them in to Corton House.

FROM THE SCHEME MANAGER

Brakendon Close tenants and residents from Corton House enjoyed a plants and gardens extravaganza, including a superb lunch at The Vicarage Gardens in East Ruston. The rain stayed away apart from a few spits and spots which helped to make it a wonderful day out for all.

We now have Norfolk day to look forward to. Afternoon tea and all things Norfolk. Tales, facts and singalongs of old Norfolk songs. Who knows, we may even fit in some dwile-flonking! For those of you who have not heard of this, it means team slapping with wet floor cloths hanging over sticks or poles!

FROM THE ACTIVITIES CO-ORDINATOR

We had a real treat recently when Emma Nuule, a classically trained singer, entertained us. Two years ago she came to Corton House but had a virus so her voice was limited. However, this time she blew the roof off!! She is such a passionate singer and chose a really varied programme to appeal to all.

The Victorian Enchantress was very well received. Belinda has worked on cruise ships and it showed - a very sleek performance of her magic show.

We were very pleased to welcome back the Busy Bodies, a fast-paced dance troupe who looked wonderful in their red velvet jackets. They range from five to fifteen and are so energetic and clearly love what they are doing. They were a joy to watch.
